

Women Wanted

SA Unions conducts a 2 week training program each year specifically for women to give them an insight into how unions operate and how they can be more active within their union.

The Anna Stewart Memorial Program provides off - the - job training on industrial issues combined with a union office placement. The focus for the 2010 program is:

Solidarity in Diversity

We encourage all
Women union members; in particular Aboriginal Women, to apply through their union

ASMP 2010
